At the meeting Mr. Fischer stated that the Center was doing a good job of training for the community. The Chairman remarked that the establishment of the Center was probably one of the better accomplishments of the Committee.

The Chairman reminded the members that, if they have a need for copies of the Damage Report film, they should relay their requirement to the Executive-Secretary as soon as possible.

3. Progress Report

No new information to report.

4. RACE Progress Report

The Chairman advised the Committee members that there had been no significant change in the status of the US or Soviet Embassy plans. He made available for review by the members 25 drawings of the Soviet's proposed complex of buildings at Mount Alto.
